

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Churches Together in Leicestershire.

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

Churches Together in Leicestershire is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Churches Together in Leicestershire complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of those associated with Churches Together in Leicestershire.
- To administer records which relate to those who are associated to Churches Together in Leicestershire
- To manage our volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records;
- To inform you of ecumenical news, events, activities and services taking place in the City of Leicester and the County of Leicestershire

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities relating to Churches Together in Leicestershire, either directly or through the Churches Together in Leicestershire web site www.churchestogetherinleicestershire.org
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be used by the County Ecumenical Development Officer for Churches Together in Leicestershire in order to carry out a service to others or for purposes connected with Churches Together in Leicestershire. We will not share your data with third parties outside of Churches Together in Leicestershire. However if it is thought appropriate it would only be shared with your consent

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data while it remains current, after which it is destroyed or deleted from the PC

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which Churches Together in Leicestershire holds about you;
- The right to request that Churches Together in Leicestershire corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for Churches Together in Leicestershire to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the Data Protection Officer provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another Data Protection Officer, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints please in the first instance contact Churches Together In Leicestershire Data Protection Officer Canon Vic Allsop by telephone 01664 434697 or email vic.churchestogether@gmail.com

You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire. SK9 5AF.

Churches Together in Leicestershire
April 4th 2018